RADFORD SOCIAL LIFE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RADFORD, VA., September 30.—The Presbyterian Union will convene in Radford Presbyterian Church Wednesday and Thursday. Rev. J. O. Reavis, of Nashville, will speak on missions Wednesday evening, and Rev. J. O. Woods, of Blacksburg, on home missions Thursday evening. Reports of the various societies will be read Thursday morning and afternoon, and luncheon will be served the delegates and visitors at the church Thursday.

Captain J. C. Osborne and Mr. Arthur Stevens will leave today for Portsmouth, Ohio, to be present at the marriage of Mr. Edward Dyer Stevens and Miss Clara York, which will take place the 4th of October.

Miss Angela Tinsley has returned from a two week visit to Miss Sue Goodloe at Blue Stone Gap, and a week's visit in the home of Judge Samuel Williams at Wytheville.

Miss Motta Bullard has returned from Birmingham, Ala., where she has been living for the last year. She has lately been very ill, and has been unable to attend the fall and winter with her sister, Mrs. E. B. Shonkline.

Mrs. W. H. Gasking and children returned Friday from Toronto, Canada, where they spent several months visiting relatives.

Colonel Warner J. Kenderdine, Miss Goodloe at Blue Stone Gap, and a week's visit in the home of Judge Samuel Williams at Wytheville.

Society in Wytheville

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, Sept. 30.—The summer visitors, of whom Wytheville has had more the present season than for years, are rapidly thinning out.

Miss Hago Dams and her daughter, of Baltimore, who spent the summer with the former's grandfather, Col. R. E. Withers, have returned to their home. Miss Angela Tinsley, of Radford, was the guest of Miss Rose Williams this week.

Miss Willie Jordan left this week for Radford, where she will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Selden Langley. Miss May Ribble returned Tuesday from a trip of several months to relatives in Connecticut.

Mr. Will Sanders and children, of Knoxville, are the guests of Major W. C. Sanders.

Mrs. Sallie Blair, of Bristol, is visiting her son, Mr. John C. Blair.

Miss Trent, of Ridgeport, Va., is spending several weeks with Mrs. Charles A. Newland, at her home near town.

Rev. Cauncey Williams, D. D., and family, of Augusta, Ga., returned home on Saturday. They are among a large number of Southern people who regularly summer in Wytheville, and add many charms to the social life of the place.

Mr. J. Iby Hurt, of Abingdon, spent a few days in Wytheville this week.

Mr. Will Thomas left Monday to attend Washington and Lee University.

Mrs. Joseph Kent and Miss Charlotte Kent, of Richmond, are visitors this week to Mrs. R. J. Preston, at "Florisant."

Mrs. McQuinn and daughter, of Texas, who spent the summer here, returned home Monday.

Mrs. J. Norment Powell, of Bristol, spent several days this week with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Fulton.

Mrs. S. W. Williams is in Roanoke, attending the fair.

Mrs. Graveley and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, of Martinsville, and Miss Kitty Smith, of Lynchburg, who have been at "Ingleside" for several weeks, left this week.

Mr. Sidney Moore, of the Tide Water railroad, is the guest of his parents, Colonel and Mrs. W. O. Moore.

Mr. Jack Williams left Wednesday for Bryan, Texas, where he will attend school.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILMINGTON, N. C., September 30.—The past week has been fraught with wedding announcements, a number of which have sent a flutter through society. In fact, it is said that the winter of the present year will mark the banner one for nuptial events in Wilmington for perhaps a decade.

The weddings for November will include those of two of the grandsons of the late Hon. George Davis, who was a member of Jefferson Davis' cabinet.

They are: Thomas W. Davis, Esq., a young member of the local bar, and Mr. George D. Crow, also of this city. The former will marry Miss Anna Peck, and the latter Miss Olive Armstrong, the eldest daughter of Mr. John S. Armstrong, president of the Atlantic National Bank, this city.

Also during the month of November Miss Emma West and Dr. Thomas M. Green will be married, the ceremony taking place in St. James' Episcopal church.

Still another fall marriage will be that of Miss Katherine Lee Beckwith to Mr. Dennis Hobdy Lee, a native of Prince George county, Va. Both of the contracting parties elect new residences here.

At St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, the evening of October 11th, the marriage of Miss Katherine Julia Stoller and Mr. Fred G. Middleton will be brilliantly celebrated.

Mrs. Thomas Martin Emerson, formerly of Richmond, but now of Wilmington, and the wife of Mr. T. M. Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, has been in New York the past week, accompanied by Miss Nellie Emerson, to meet Miss Edith Emerson, who had been making an extensive trip abroad.

Next week promises to be a merry one, as the Wilmington Light Infantry has on taps for three nights a military bazaar, which will be given on the large lawn in the rear of the handsome marble armory on Market street, and the Y. M. C. A. will present a brilliant program to mark the opening of its social season, but these will be eclipsed, so far as society goes, by the wedding of Miss Margaret Meares and Mr. William Lamer at the home of the bride-elect, No. 118 South Fourth street, Tuesday next.

Mrs. F. Hopkinson Smith and little son, Master Frank, are expected to arrive soon from their home in London, England, to spend the winter with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kiddier.

Mrs. John A. Arrindale, one of Wilmington's society leaders, is expected to leave soon for the North, where she will later be joined by Mr. Arrindale, and they will make an extensive western trip.

SOUTH BOSTON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SOUTH BOSTON, VA., September 30.—One of the most enjoyable euchre parties of the season was that given by Miss Bessie T. Shepherd at her home on Thursday afternoon. The parlors and dining rooms had been handsomely decorated for the occasion, and the music, interspersed throughout the afternoon, made the occasion one of unusual pleasure, while the refreshments served were the choicest and most delicious. The prizes, a dainty pair of embroidered scissors, was won by Mrs. John C. Harris.

Those invited were Misses Will Basley, Louise Penick, Laura Stebbins, Mamie Fry, Marie Hudson, Louise Owen, Imogene Watkins and Miss Shields; Messrs. Robert H. Edmondson, W. T. Jordan, V. L. Fowkes, E. M. Penick, J. D. Tucker, A. H. Vaughan, T. E. Armstrong, R. B. Jordan, G. E. Faulkner, J. C. Harris and C. V. Brookes.

A very large and appreciative crowd greeted Mr. Miller and his "Old South Quartette" at the Opera House Wednesday evening. Not a seat was vacant in the house. This was the largest crowd that has patronized the Opera House this season.

Miss Minnie Ivey, of New London, N. C., is visiting Mrs. Sawyer, on Wilborne Avenue.

Miss Mary Coleman, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her parents at this place. She expects to return to Brooklyn in two weeks.

Miss Lulu Harrell, who has been spending several months in Baltimore, has returned home.

Mrs. Eugene M. Terry is visiting relatives in Mount Sterling, Ky.
